A delightful evening was passed yesterday, by a small party of young people in Mr. Harry Anderson's parlors. Music and dancing was the order of the hour.

Mr. H. P. Richardson, son of the Hon. Hamilton Richardson, has resigned his position in the First National bank, and entered Anshel college. His brother, John has taken his place in the bank.

Mr. G. B. Rockefeller, deputy clerk of the criminal court of Chicago, was in the city to-day, visiting old friends. Mr. Rockefeller is enjoying a vacation with his father, Mr. R. Rockefeller, of Whitewater.

Adjutant M. A. Newman of the First Regiment W. N. C., was complimented when in Dubuque with the Guards, by being made Assistant Adjutant General during the encampment exercises there.

The shelves and all the surroundings of M. C. Smith's New York Cash store on Main street, present a handsome appearance now, with their freightage of the latest styles in dress goods, of every conceivable variety.

On his recent trip to Dakota Mr. R. W. King established a book and stationery store in Clark Center, Clark Co., D. T. in partnership with his nephew, Walter S. Kern. The store is called "The Gem," and is already doing a fine business.

Messrs. Goldsmith & Co. of Milwaukee, the well known carpet and upholstery store, are issuing circulars setting forth great inducements to inspect their immense fall stock of goods. They make a specialty of artistic goods and work.

Zimmerman Brothers, of Milwaukee, are putting in one of the largest and finest assortments of clothing ever seen anywhere, as a preparation for the coming Exposition. Give them a call at the sign of the blue flag, 334 East Water street.

Housekeepers, visiting the Exposition, which will open next week in Milwaukee, should not fail to inspect the immense stock of furnishing goods at T. A. Chapman & Co.'s, 125 to 135 Wisconsin street, Milwaukee. They have everything in their line imaginable, and of the finest description.

In view of the great influx of strangers in Milwaukee during the Exposition, the great shoe house of B. F. DeLand, 122 Grand Avenue, opposite the Plankton House, has made extra preparations for customers. There are many ladies in Janesville numbered among Mr. DeLand's patrons, who are high in his praise.

Charles Wilcox was arrested on a warrant by Marshal Hogan last night, on the charge of disobeying city ordinances.

relative to the abatement of nuisances.

On his promising to remove the objectionable things about his place, City Attorney Eyster released him from further prosecution. He paid costs in the Municipal Court to-day and returned home.

The Exposition in Milwaukee will doubtless possess attractions without number, but the ladies will take more delight in visiting companies where they can regale their eyes with handsome dresses, embroideries and kindred things. A good place to do this would be Rich & Silber's, who have put in a new stock of the finest goods.

A prominent gentleman of this city received the following telegram to-day from Josh E. Ogden, business manager for Buffalo Bill: Milwaukee, Sept. 2nd "Cody played to a big house last night, sober as a judge. Play good." This will be gratifying intelligence to a number of friends, made by Mr. Cody during his short stay here, who knew that last Thursday night was the first time he had ever appeared on the stage in such a condition.

The League games of ball yesterday resulted as follows: Chicago 7, Boston 1; Buffalo 6, Providence 2; Detroit 1, Troy 0. Next Tuesday the formal opening of the second annual Milwaukee Exposition will take place. The management have done everything that energy, enterprise, brains and money could do to make this the finest exposition of industrial products and works of art, ever seen in the Northwest, and the indications are that their endeavors will meet with the success they deserve. Every facility will be afforded for the accommodation of visitors, and all lines of transportation charge reduced rates to passengers during the exposition. A failure to attend sometime during its continuance, will be a brilliant opportunity lost, to witness the progress made in science and art in our country.

The Government's Memory.

Colonel W. B. Britton was a much surprised man last evening, to learn that a war claim of his had been allowed. During the siege of Vicksburg, Colonel Britton had a horse killed and in 1873 put in a bill for the animal to the government. Years rolled by, and three or four months ago, he was appraised by a solicitor of patents and claims in Washington, that there was a good prospect of the claim being allowed. Nothing more was heard of it until last evening, when the Colonel was notified by the lawyer that the government had indemnified him in the sum of $195 for the slain horse. Thus after nearly twenty years, of pigeon-holing, the government pays for a horse killed in a fight, long after the owner had given up all hope of receiving anything.

In Hot Water.

Orpha M. Hodge, Battle Creek, Mich., writes: "I upset a tea-kettle of boiling hot water on my hand. I at once applied Thomas' Eucalypti Oil, and the effect was to immediately allay pain. I was cured in three days."

A Narrow Escape.

The Baptist church narrowly escaped destruction by fire at an early hour this morning. On entering the church, at about 7 o'clock this morning to do some work, Mr. N. A. Swan, the sexton noticed smoke a dense smoke, and the odor of something burning. The unusual presence was first discovered by Mr. Swan, and positive that something must be on fire, an investigation was made. A pew in the gallery was found to be burning with a slow fire, and was immediately extinguished. A portion of the back of the pew and the cushion were burned. There was no one to be seen anywhere, but there was ample evidence on the cushion to show that a stranger had been in the building, and had slept there. Subsequently it was found that the intruder had effected an entrance through the basement, by prying open one of the windows with a plank. Some tramp, seeking shelter from the rain had climbed into the church, and was probably smoking his pipe, when he fell asleep, a spark igniting the cushion.

Had it not been for the timely appearance of Messrs. Swan and Hinckley, who was also present a disastrous fire might have resulted.

Evils to be Avoided.

Over-eating is in one sense as productive of evil as intemperance in drinking. Avoid both, and keep the blood purified with Burdock Blood Bitters, and you will be rewarded with robust health and invigorated system. Price $1.00. Sold by Palmer & Stevens and R. Stearns & Co.

The Theater Next Week.

Tony Denier, who is acknowledged as holding the palm as the representative manager of American pantomime will be here with his great combination next Wednesday, and give one of his far famed performances at the Myers Opera house that evening. On the same night Aldrich and Parslow, will produce Bartley Campbell's great play "My Father" at Lippin's Hall. Charles Parsloe, is considered the best imitator of a Chinese man on the stage, and in fact created the character, which now has so many impersonators. The company is composed of fine actors, and is as a whole as good as any of the travelling theatrical organizations on the road. After two shows Wednesday night, Ben Maginley will follow Thursday at the Opera house in his great play entitled "A Square Man. Mr. Maginley will have a good deal to contend with in following two performances, but he has an attraction that will draw under almost any circumstances. Janesville will therefore have the best opportunity it has ever enjoyed to witness three first class entertainments in one week, and as the theatre is a favorite amusement, the probabilities are that each will do well.
